

INFORMATION REGARDING LANGUAGE COURSES

Full-time Second-Cycle Studies – Information for Candidates

Students enrolled in full-time second-cycle studies are required to study one foreign language for two semesters, with 30 hours per semester.

Foreign language classes begin in the second semester. All information regarding enrollment in language groups will be published on the website of the Language Center in the Class Enrollment section. Information about the planned registration dates will also be available on the Center's website in the News section.

Part-time Second-Cycle Studies – Information for Candidates

Students enrolled in part-time second-cycle studies are required to study one foreign language for two semesters, with 18 hours per semester.

Foreign language classes begin in the second semester. All information regarding enrollment in language groups will be published on the website of the Language Center in the Class Enrollment section. Information about the planned registration dates will also be available on the Center's website in the News section.